PAUL SIMPSON,

Plaintiff,

COMPLAINT

-against-

12 CV 4581 (RJS)

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, NEW YORK CITY POLICE
OFFICER JUSTIN SMITH, tax # 947497, JOHN DOE,

Jury Trial Demanded

Defendants.

----- X

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiff, a 23 year-old student studying air conditioning and refrigeration, brings this civil rights action against the City of New York and two New York City Police Officers of the 71st Precinct alleging that, on August 19, 2011, at approximately 4:00 p.m., defendants violated his rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution and New York state law by falsely arresting him for possession of marijuana and using unreasonable force on him. The false charges were adjourned in contemplation of dismissal during plaintiff's arraignment on August 20, 2011, at approximately 11:55 p.m. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, attorney's fees and costs and such other and further relief as the court deems just and proper.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

2. This action is brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343.

3. Plaintiff invokes the supplemental jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 to hear and decide his New York state law claims of false arrest, assault and battery which form part of the same case and controversy as his federal claims under Article III of the United States Constitution.

4. Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because the City of New York resides in and is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District and because plaintiff's Monell claim is based on acts and omissions that occurred in this District at One Police Plaza, the Internal Affairs Bureau and the Office of the Civilian Complaint Review Board.

NOTICE OF CLAIM

5. With respect to plaintiff's state law claims of false arrest, assault and battery brought against the individual defendant police officers, no notice of claim is required because the claims allege intentional conduct. In suits against municipal or county employees, as opposed to suits against municipalities or counties themselves, "service of the notice of claim upon the public corporation shall be required only if the corporation has a statutory obligation to indemnify such person under this chapter or any other provision of law." N.Y. Gen. Mun. Law § 50-e(1)(b). Although a municipality is required to "indemnify and save harmless its employees in the amount of any judgment obtained against such employees in any state or federal court, ... the duty to indemnify and save harmless ... shall not arise where the injury or damage resulted from intentional wrongdoing or recklessness on the part of the employee." N.Y. Gen. Mun. L. § 50-k(3).

JURY TRIAL

6. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38, plaintiff demands a jury trial.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff is a United States citizen.

8. The City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

9. The individual defendants are members of the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”). Defendants were acting under color of state law and in their capacities as members of the NYPD at all relevant times. Defendants are liable for directly participating in the unlawful acts described herein and for failing to intervene to protect plaintiff from unconstitutional conduct. The defendants are sued in their individual capacities.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. On August 19, 2011, at approximately 4:00 p.m., on Beekman Place between Lincoln Road and Parkside Avenue in Brooklyn, plaintiff was stopped by New York City Police Officer Justin Smith and a second police officer, whose last name may be “Sanchez.”

11. At the time that plaintiff was stopped, he was walking to meet his girlfriend at a nail salon and had stopped for a moment to greet two friends who he had run into on the way.

12. The officers illegally searched plaintiff and found nothing illegal on him.

13. The officers handcuffed plaintiff excessively tight causing pain, bruising and injuries to his wrists.

14. The officers refused to loosen the cuffs.

15. Plaintiff has a pre-existing injury to his right wrist that occurred many years ago but which still causes him pain.

16. The officers took plaintiff and his two friends to the 71st Precinct where plaintiff was held for several hours without food or water.

17. While plaintiff was held in the precinct, Officer Smith, with the knowledge and approval of the other officer involved in the arrest of plaintiff, falsely charged plaintiff with possession of marijuana.

18. Plaintiff was eventually taken to Brooklyn Central Booking.

19. While plaintiff was held in Brooklyn Central Booking, Officer Smith, pursuant to an agreement with the other officer involved in the arrest of plaintiff, misrepresented to prosecutors that plaintiff was found in possession of marijuana.

20. As a result of the officers' misrepresentations, criminal charges were filed against plaintiff.

21. The false charges were adjourned in contemplation of dismissal during plaintiff's arraignment on August 20, 2011, at approximately 11:55 p.m.

22. Plaintiff did not understand what was happening in court during his arraignment.

23. During the arraignment, plaintiff's public defender advised plaintiff that his case was essentially being dismissed.

24. Plaintiff suffered damage as a result of defendants' actions. Plaintiff was incarcerated for approximately 32 hours and suffered a loss of liberty, emotional distress, fear, anxiety, embarrassment, humiliation, and pain, bruising and injuries to his wrists. Plaintiff did not receive medical or mental health treatment as a result of defendants' conduct.

FIRST CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST)

25. Plaintiff repeats the foregoing allegations.

26. At all relevant times, plaintiff did not commit a crime or violation.

27. Despite plaintiff's innocence, the defendants arrested plaintiff or failed to intervene to prevent his false arrest.

28. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff under the Fourth Amendment for false arrest.

SECOND CLAIM

(UNREASONABLE FORCE)

29. Plaintiff repeats the foregoing allegations.

30. Defendants' use of force upon plaintiff or their failure to intervene to stop the use of force was objectively unreasonable and caused plaintiff pain, bruising and injuries to his wrists.

31. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff under the Fourth Amendment for using unreasonable force on him.

THIRD CLAIM

(FAILURE TO INTERVENE)

32. Plaintiff repeats the foregoing allegations.

33. Defendants had a reasonable opportunity to prevent the violations of plaintiff's constitutional rights, but they failed to intervene.

34. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff for failing to intervene to prevent the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights.

FOURTH CLAIM

(MONELL CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY OF NEW YORK)

35. Plaintiff repeats the foregoing allegations.

36. The City of New York is a “person” within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

37. The City of New York, through a policy, practice or custom, directly caused the constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff.

38. Upon information and belief, the City of New York, at all relevant times, was aware that the defendants and other members of the NYPD are unfit officers who have previously committed acts similar to those alleged herein, have a propensity for unconstitutional conduct and/or have been inadequately trained.

39. In addition to frequently violating the civil rights of countless residents of New York City, numerous members of the NYPD commit crimes. Officers have been arrested and convicted of such crimes as planting evidence on suspects, falsifying police reports, perjury, corruption, theft, selling narcotics, smuggling firearms, robbery, fixing tickets, driving under the influence of alcohol, vehicular homicide, assault and domestic violence. In fact, former NYPD Commissioner Bernard Kerik was convicted of corruption-related crimes in federal and state court and served time in federal prison. In 2011, Brooklyn South narcotics officer Jerry Bowens was convicted of murder and attempted murder in Supreme Court, Kings County, while under indictment for corruption and is presently serving a life sentence. In 2011, Police Officer William Eiseman and his subordinate Police Officer Michael Carsey were convicted of felonies in Supreme Court, New York County, for lying under oath, filing false information to obtain search warrants and performing illegal searches of vehicles and apartments. On March 27, 2012, New York City Police Officer Michael Pena was convicted in Supreme Court, New York County, of sexually assaulting a woman at gunpoint and is presently serving a sentence of 75 years to life.

40. In October 2011, former Brooklyn South narcotics officer Jason Arbeeney was convicted in New York Supreme Court, Kings County, of planting drugs on two individuals and falsifying arrest reports. Before issuing a verdict of guilty, the judge scolded the NYPD for what he described as a “widespread culture of corruption endemic in its drug units.” The judge further stated that the testimony demonstrated that the NYPD narcotics divisions maintain a “cowboy culture” and that he was “shocked, not only by the seeming pervasive scope of misconduct but even more distressingly by the seeming casualness by which such conduct is employed.”

41. At least one federal court has recognized that there is widespread falsification by members of the NYPD. In Colon v. City of New York, Nos. 09 CV 8, 09 CV 9 (JBW), 2009 WL 4263362 (E.D.N.Y. November 25, 2009), the court stated that an “[in]formal inquiry by the court and among the judges of this court, as well as knowledge of cases in other federal and state courts, has revealed anecdotal evidence of repeated, widespread falsification by arresting police officers of the New York City Police Department.”

42. Another federal court held in Floyd v. City of New York, 08 Civ. 1034 (S.D.N.Y. May 16, 2012) that the City of New York’s and the NYPD’s “cavalier attitude towards the prospect of a ‘widespread practice of suspicionless stops’ displays a deeply troubling apathy towards New Yorkers’ most fundamental constitutional rights.”

43. Despite the above, the City exercised deliberate indifference by failing to take remedial action. The City failed to properly train, retrain, supervise, discipline and monitor the defendants and other officers like them.

44. The City's failure to act resulted in the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein.

FIFTH CLAIM

(FALSE ARREST UNDER STATE LAW)

45. Plaintiff repeats the foregoing allegations.

46. At all relevant times, plaintiff did not commit a crime or violation.

47. Despite plaintiff's innocence, the defendants arrested plaintiff or failed to intervene to prevent his false arrest.

48. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff under New York state law for false arrest.

SIXTH CLAIM

(ASSAULT)

49. Plaintiff repeats the foregoing allegations.

50. Defendants' force upon plaintiff placed him in fear of imminent harmful and offensive physical contacts which injured him.

51. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff under New York state law for assault.

SEVENTH CLAIM

(BATTERY)

52. Plaintiff repeats the foregoing allegations.

53. Defendants' force upon plaintiff constituted offensive and nonconsensual physical contacts which injured him.

54. Accordingly, the defendants are liable to plaintiff under New York state law for battery.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands a jury trial and the following relief jointly and severally against the defendants:

- a. Compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by a jury;
- b. Punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury;
- c. Attorney's fees and costs;
- d. Such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
